DESCRIPCIÓN	INFO DEL PROYECTO "Roter Baum" Berlin UG (haftungsbeschränkt) is nongovernmental organisation is founded 2011 by "Roter Baum" e.V. and is running all projects of "Roter Baum" organization network in Berlin city, mostly in Hellersdorf district. It follows the work of gKJHG "Roter Baum" mbH. We are working since 2001 in Berlin in several programmes. "Roter Baum Zentrale" (www.roter-baum-berlin.de) has 120 m², 2 employed staff with all necessary equipment for administrative work, communications and big seminar room. It is administrative center for Roter Baum Berlin, but it is not only that except administrative and fundraising tasks in Zentrale exist big meeting room for youth meetings (especially for youth participation projects), kitchen and separated bathrooms. This Facilities are basic point for the participation projects "diveRcity - youth culture in Hellersdorf", "Action budget for tolerance", which promotes youngsters to implement their own ideas and projects. This facility is also info point for all young people and other interested people in district. Several youth participation projects, youth culture projects, projects for political education and international youth exchanges was implemented by Roter Baum Berlin. In last year youngsters and youth workers were participating in several trainings under YiA and Erasmus plus programme. Beside all this in „Roter Baum Zentrale“ we are developing ideas for future projects, developing applications and actively participating in project activities implementation. Through our activities we cooperate with different non formal youth groups and help them to cooperate with other facilities or organizations (government and non government). We also provide active support to our local and international volunteers. Our organization is involved in EVS projects since 2009 through YiA programme as hosting organization only and from 2013 through YiA and Erasmus plus programme as hosting, sending and coordinating organization. Main reason for continuing working at EVS project for us is, that we believe for the youngsters from our district it is important to get international experiences and improve their intercultural knowledge. For us it's important to transport the topics to youngsters, youth activism and youth mobility in local community, and also to others youngsters in the world. This facility is constantly hosting few national volunteers of different profiles, students at practicum and one international volunteer. „Roter Baum“ Berlin UG – zentrale is member of: ORA Network; AG78 Kinder und Jugendarbeit Marzahn/Hellersdorf. We are constantly cooperating on many multinational projects with partner members coming mostly from: Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, FYR Macedonia, Bulgaria, Romania, Belgium, Italy, Portugal... MAS INFO
