The project lasts 5 years, the first step will take place from September 2019 till August 2020. Volunteers have to arrive during the first week of September 2019 (before 7. September). MEBA is closed during August because of holiday so the end of project will be in July.

Till November 2019 the volunteers will have a training in MEBA about the E.U and the european values, and then they will be resend as Ambassadors to the schools and different kind of organisations to spread those values. Some of them will stay in MEBA to help with daily work and administration.

- Criteria for selection volunteers

In fact, criteria are the same like in other selection process. So people should be really interested in a project, responsible, motivated and be able to work alone. Have ability to work also in a team is welcome because this is a big project so a good cooperation is necessary. Our language for communication can be english or french.

You can find us on FB - <https://www.facebook.com/jeanmonnet.meba> , where we are posting daily information about organisation, and twitter: @maison_europe or check out our website <http://europe-bordeaux.eu/en/home/> . When we will receive some new documents or informations, we will directly inform you.
